AIR Quilt: Judy Riddle

2015 AIR Quilt is hanging in the GAC foyer. Tickets are available at GAC, if you would like to sell or purchase tickets. Tickets should be available at the Dolphin soon.

Comfort Quilts: Joyce Gaudet, Polly Dakin: We are getting to the bottom of the pile and need more quilts. Crib size (45" x 60") is the best size for lap and wheelchair. Come to the Comfort Quilt workshop on June 19.

Quilts of Valor: Sandy Lockhart: Currently have 15 – 17 Quilts of Valor. She will be going to Palo Alto this weekend for distribution of the quilts to the VA on April 30. Some quilts do not have labels. Sandy will put labels on these quilts. Let her know if you do not want your name on the label. Consensus of the group was that labels make the quilt more personable. You could put just your first name on the label, but please prepare a label. Sandy also suggested that in addition to red, white and blue, quilts could be done in black and gold, Marine colors.

Show and Tell:

- (1) Sandy Hughes showed a 129 year old quilt that she saved from going to the trash. The note with the quilt indicated the originator passed away in 1887. The quilt was very frail, a log cabin block with a backing but no batting..."a summer quilt".
- (2) Janice Batchelder showed a small quilt made with fabrics from the fanny basket. The quilt will be available for the AIR booth and, if not sold, will go to the Comfort Quilt stash.
- (3) Dee Goodrich showed a top she just completed called the Disappearing Hour Glass. Once quilted, it will be available for AIR and, if not sold, will go to the Comfort Quilt stash.
- (4) Barbara Fast showed Halloween costumes she is making out of Onesies for premie babies. They will be given to the Children's ward at UCSF. She welcomed others to join her in this endeavor.

Guest Lecturer, Joen Wolfrom, was introduced by Kalynn Oleson. Joen presented a very educational talk about color entitled "It's Color that Makes the Quilts go WOW!"

Meeting was adjourned at 2:50
